NETWORK: With likeminded executives who are passionate about this work.

To be:

EDUCATED: On corporate best practices and tools for mainstreaming disability in the workforce, workplace and marketplace.

INSPIRED: By an amazing line-up of presenters

WHO:

Corporate Executives representing Diversity, Human Resources, Work-Life, EEO, Marketing, Communications, Branding as well as other key constituents within the organization.

WHAT'S NEW?

A lot...

- ◆ Expanded Sponsorship packages providing broader brand awareness and more valuable benefits than ever before.
- ◆ A new award category- The “Steps to Success” award identifies and celebrates companies who are beginning on their journey of innovation, action and transformation relative to individuals with disabilities whether as employees, customers or both.
- ◆ A specialty session dedicated to Accessibility, featuring the tools and best practices for Physical Accessibility/Universal Design, Web Accessibility, Accessible Technology, and Accommodations.
- ◆ Interactive facilitated table exercises following every panel resulting in real-time development of implementation strategies. This was a huge success at the 2013 DM Europe conference where this concept was first introduced.
